

Fifth Grade

As a family of learners we will foster creativity, exploration, and flexibility by asking questions, taking chances, and persevering.

We will become life-long learners who demonstrate responsibility, respect, and acceptance by learning from our mistakes and each other and believing in ourselves and the value we contribute to the community.