

Fourth Grade

As students and teachers we strive to create a peaceful and scholarly classroom community. In this community we collectively encourage and inspire all members to be creative and innovative. This results in members leaving this stop on their educational journey realizing that their best effort, integrity, and mindset, dictate their path.